

The Upper Ottawa Valley Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) would like to warn residents of an iTunes scam that has recently surfaced in the area.

Increasingly police have received complaints where fraudsters request payment for various fraudulent reasons through the purchase of iTunes gift cards.

- ♦ In one scenario scammers impersonate the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) and claim that the target owes “back taxes.” The target is advised payment must be made immediately to avoid arrest and serious legal consequences. The targets are instructed to purchase and activate iTunes gift cards and provide the codes back to the fraudsters as a form of payment.
- ♦ In a second scenario scammers have impersonated a grandchild in need of financial help due to legal trouble and payment by iTunes cards is needed to bail the grandchild out of jail or pay fines.

For more information on frauds and scams you can visit www.antifraudcentre.ca
